

Smartmail Catalog Fulfillment - Ground

Flats and Bound Printed Matter

Are you a retail/e-commerce or catalog company? Do you send owners manuals, welcome kits, annual reports, proxies or other types of printed matter? How about product samples? Are these items bound (stapled, glued, stitched or spiral)? If you are mailing the same components day after day, we have the right solution for you.

Rely on the power of our nationwide network.

DHL Global Mail™ offers SMARTMAIL CATALOG FULFILLMENT®, a cost-efficient solution that provides an alternative to in-house fulfillment of requested information. DHL Global Mail has a state-of-the-art warehouse management system and operations allowing for pick, pack, sort and drop into the United States Postal Service (USPS) mail stream. By leveraging the strength of our network, DHL Global Mail offers faster delivery and less variability via the destination BMC drop.

Peace of mind.

It's our way of delivering something money can't buy: satisfied customers across the USA. Take one look at our service options and you'll understand.
